

FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY'S
CHRISTINE E. LYNN
COLLEGE OF NURSING

AN INTERNATIONAL LEADER IN CARING SCIENCE

- Holistic Caring-focused mission, vision and philosophy guide the College.
- Home of the Anne Boykin Institute for the Advancement of Caring in Nursing with a Board membership of 15 internationally-recognized scholars in caring science.
- 20 faculty published prominent books and journal articles focused on Caring Science, several are scholars in Unitary Science.
- 7 faculty published theories related to caring science.
- 50 students are currently enrolled in a PhD program with a focus on Caring Science.
- Faculty research advances caring science in 4 areas: healthy aging across the lifespan, holistic health, health equity and transforming practice environments.
- Only College in the U.S. with all 4 degree programs - BSN, MSN, DNP and PhD - endorsed by the American Holistic Nurses Credentialing Corporation (AHNCC).
- 5 faculty are board certified in Advanced Holistic Nursing, 1 is board certified in Holistic Nursing, and 4 are board certified as Integrative Health/Wellness Coaches by the AHNCC.
- 10 faculty are certified as HeartMath trainers.
- 2 nurse-managed centers serve as vibrant demonstrations of healthcare guided by the caring mission, vision and values.
- 35 years of experience offering a curriculum centered on the substantive study of caring through nursing situations.
- Houses the only Archives of Caring Science in the world preserving the work of prominent caring scholars.
- College of Nursing building, designed to nurture well-being, features spaces for self-reflection, quiet contemplation, yoga and other modalities.

